● Intermission: Snacks & Prizes

● From Documents to Sentences to Stories: Rebuilding Family Stories

Turning your genealogy research discoveries into meaningful stories can be challenging. Follow the re-creation of one family's story using hands-on, step-by-step, try-this-now story-building strategies. Turn a single record discovery into a simple paragraph, then a paragraph into a story by looking for the "plot" and other interesting elements that make up the most interesting stories. Teaser: in the story you'll follow, one of the heroes is a dog, my son's favorite "ancestor." This talk is aimed at audiences who may be intimidated by the writing process.
